EFL 103 E Fall 3.00 2.00 0.00 4.00 5.00 Lecturer Resul Kilic, MSc Assistant Course language English Course level Program Profesional 2-Vjeçar This course aims to improve communication in general and especially communication in the topics of "Sustainable Development Goals". In a world where globalism is the key word, we must prepare students with global communication skills. In the SB Times Zones, students will develop language ar writing skills by learning about topics related to different cultures and the world which we live. we all live, ODG topics covered by this book such as: climate change, poverty, hunger, water crisis, gender equality, social and health welfar quality education, life under water, life on land, invites students to be citizens of the book has parts from the real world, it is motivating, actual and on Thursday night develops critical thinking skills. By becoming more familiar with these objectives, they will be able to participate in various projects or conferences, having a sufficient vocabulary and language skills to communicate globally. Students will be able to better understand the globalized world and the terminology used in relation to the Sustainable Development Goals. They will lear about Cimate change issues. They will lear babout Sustainablist Pray will lear and about climate change issues. They will learn to write formal an informal letters addressed to institutions, NGOs or their friends. They will lear talk about issues that directly affect our lives. They will learn public speaking on curre topics. They will be formed as individuals by completing their knowledge both linguistically and professionally, but above all by being competent in global communication Core Concepts Objectives NTRODUCTION LIFE BOOKS-Unit 1 Culture and identity -practice test-ABA English-During this presentation, I'll cover three main aspects of ABA English: Learning Approach: How the platfor		Course Regular Lecture Seminar Lab.
Lecturer Resul Kilic, MSc Assistant Course language English Course level Program Profesional 2-Vjeçar This course aims to improve communication in general and especially communication on the topics of "Sustainable Development Goals". In a world where globalism is the key word, we must prepare students with global communication skills. In the SB Times Zones, students will develop language are writing skills by learning about topics related to different cultures and the world which we live. We all live, ODG topics covered by this book such as: climate change, poverty, hunger, water crisis, gender equality, social and health welfar quality education, life under water, life on land, invites students to be cliziens on the world by learning about global issues that affect us all. Since the content of the book has parts from the real world, it is motivating, actual and on Thursday night develops critical thinking skills. By becoming more familiar with these objectives, they will be able to participate in various projects or conferences, having a sufficient vocabulary and language skills to communicate globally. Students will be able to better understand the globalized world and the terminology used in relation to the Sustainable Development Goals. They will learn to write formal an informal letters addressed to institutions, NGOs or their friends. They will learn to write formal an informal letters addressed to institutions, NGOs or their friends. They will use the acquired vocabulary correctly and construct sentences with a regular structure They will develop critical thinking skills. They will learn public speaking on curre topics. They will develop critical thinking skills. They will learn public speaking on curre topics. They will develop critical thinking skills. They will learn public speaking on curre topics. They will be formed as individuals by completing their knowledge both inguistically and professionally, but above all by being competent in global communication Core Concepts Objectives Core Concep	ourse Code			1 -		l •	Credits	ECTS
Course language Course level Program Profesional 2-Vjeçar This course aims to improve communication in general and especially communication on the topics of "Sustainable Development Goals". In a world where globalism is the key word, we must prepare students with global communication skills. In the SB Times Zones, students will develop language are writing skills by learning about topics related to different cultures and the world which we live. we all live, DOB topics covered by this book such as: climate change, poverty, hunger, water crisis, gender equality, social and health welfor quality education. life under water, life on land, invites students to be citizens of the world by learning about global issues that affect us all. Since the content of the book has parts from the real world, it is motivating, actual and on Thursday night develops critical thinking skills. By becoming more familiar with these objectives, they will be able to participate in various projects or conferences, having a sufficient vocabulary and language skills to communicate globally. Students will be able to better understand the globalized world and the terminology used in relation to the Sustainable Development Goals. They will be about Sustainability They will learn about climate change issues. They will talk about issues that directly affect our lives. They will learn to write formal informal letters addressed to institutions, NGOs or their friends. They will use the acquired vocabulary correctly and construct sentences with a regular structure. They will develop critical thinking skills. They will learn to write formal informal letters addressed to institutions, NGOs or their friends. They will use the acquired vocabulary correctly and construct sentences with a regular structure topics. They will be formed as individuals by completing their knowledge both linguistically and professionally, but above all by being competent in global communication Core Concepts Topic NTRODUCTION LIFE BOOKS -Unit 1 Culture and identity -pra	EFL 103	E	Fall	3.00	2.00	0.00	4.00	5.00
Course language Course level This course aims to improve communication in general and especially communication on the topics of "Sustainable Development Goals". In a world where globalism is the key word, we must prepare students with global communication skills. In the SB Times Zones, students will develop language are writing skills by learning about topics related to different cultures and the world which we live. we all live, DOB topics covered by this book such as: climate change, poverty, hunger, water crisis, gender equality, social and health welfor quality education, life under water, life on land, invites students to be citizens of the world by learning about global issues that affect us all. Since the content of the book has parts from the real world, it is motivating, actual and on Thursday night develops critical thinking skills. By becoming more familiar with these objectives, they will be able to participate in various projects or conferences, having a sufficient vocabulary and language skills to communicate globally. Students will be able to better understand the globalized world and the terminology used in relation to the Sustainable Development Goals. They will lead about Sustainability They will learn about climate change issues. They will lear ablate about Sustainability They will learn but climate change issues. They will learn to write formal an informal letters addressed to institutions, MGOs or their friends. They will use the acquired vocabulary correctly and construct sentences with a regular structure. They will develop critical thinking skills. They will learn builci speaking on curt topics. They will be communication Core Concepts Objectives Topic Tropic NTRODUCTION LIFE BOOKS -Unit 1 Culture and identity -practice test-ABA English-During this presentation, I'll cover three main aspects of ABA English: Learning Approach: How the platfor mirrors the process of natural language acquisition. Interactive Features and Content: includin the use of ABA Films and live teacher sessio
Course language Course level Program Profesional 2-Vjeçar This course aims to improve communication in general and especially communication on the topics of "Sustainable Development Goals". In a world where globalism is the key word, we must prepare students with global communication skills. In the SB Times Zones, students wild develop language ar writing skills by learning about topics related to different cultures and the world which we live. We all live, ODG topics covered by this book such as: climate change, poverty, hunger, water crisis, gender equality, social and health welfar quality education, life under water, life on land. invites students to be citizens to the world by learning about global issues that affect us all. Since the content of the book has parts from the real world, it is motivating, actual and on Thursday night develops critical thinking skills. By becoming more familiar with these objectives, they will be able to participate in various projects or conferences, having a sufficient vocabulary and language skills to communicate globally. Students will be able to better understand the globalized world and the terminology used in relation to the Sustainable Development Goals. They will learn about climate change issues. They will lear the virtie formal an informal letters addressed to institutions, NGOs or their friends. They will use the acquired vocabulary correctly and construct sentences with a regular string talk about issues that directly affect our lives. They will learn public speaking on curre topics. They will be formed as individuals by completing their knowledge both linguistically and professionally, but above all by being competent in global communication Core Concepts NRODUCTION LIFE BOOKS -Unit 1 Culture and identity -practice test-ABA English-During this presentation, I'll cover three main aspects of ABA English: Learning Approach: How the platfor mirrors the process of natural language acquisition. Interactive Features and Content: Includin the use of ABA Films and		Lecturer	Resul Kilic, MSc
This course aims to improve communication in general and especially communication on the topics of "Sustainable Development Goals". In a world where globalism is the key word, we must prepare students with global communication skills. In the SB Times Zones, students will develop language ar writing skills by learning about topics related to different cultures and the world which we live. We all live, DOS topics covered by this book such as: climate world by learning about global issues that affect us all. Since the content of the book has parts from the real world, it is motivating, actual and on Thursday night develops critical thinking skills. By becoming more familiar with these objectives, they will be able to participate in various projects or conferences, having a sufficient vocabulary and language skills to communicate globally. Students will be able to better understand the globalized world and the terminology used in relation to the Sustainable Development Goals. They will lear talk about susses that directly affect our lives. They will learn to write formal an informal letters addressed to institutions, NGOs or their friends. They will lear talk about susues that directly affect our lives. They will learn to write formal an informal letters addressed to institutions, NGOs or their friends. They will lear lacquired vocabulary correctly and construct sentences with a regular structure. They will develop critical thinking skills. They will learn public speaking on curre to provide the service of the ser		Assistant
This course aims to improve communication in general and especially communication on the topics of "Sustainable Development Goals". In a world where globalism is the key word, we must prepare students with global communication skills. In the SB Times Zones, students will develop language ar writing skills by learning about topics related to different cultures and the world which we live. we all live, ODG topics covered by this book such as: climate change, poverty, hunger, water crisis, gender equality, social and health welfar quality education, life under water, life on land, invites students to be citizens on the world by learning about global issues that affect us all. Since the content of the book has parts from the real world, it is motivating, actual and on Thursday night develops critical thinking skills. By becoming more familiar with these objectives, they will be able to participate in various projects or conferences, having a sufficient vocabulary and language skills to communicate globally. Students will be able to better understand the globalized world and the terminology used in relation to the Sustainable Development Goals. They will learn talk about issues that directly affect our lives. They will learn to write formal an informal letters addressed to institutions, NGos or their friends row the reminology used in relation to the Sustainable Development Goals. They will lear talk about issues that directly affect our lives. They will learn to write formal an informal letters addressed to institutions, NGos or their friends row with a regular structure. They will develop critical thinking skills. They will learn public speaking on curre topics. They will develop critical thinking skills. They will learn public speaking on curre topics. They will develop critical thinking skills. They will learn public speaking on curre topics. They will develop critical thinking skills. They will learn public speaking on curre topics. They will develop critical thinking skills. They will learn public speaking on	Cou	rse language	English communication on the topics of "Sustainable Development Goals". In a world where globalism is the key word, we must prepare students with global communication skills. In the SB Times Zones, students will develop language ar writing skills by learning about topics related to different cultures and the world which we live. We all live, ODG topics covered by this book such as: climate change, poverty, hunger, water crisis, gender equality, social and health welfar quality education, life under water, life on land. invites students to be citizens on the world by learning about global issues that affect us all. Since the content of the book has parts from the real world, it is motivating, actual and on Thursday night develops critical thinking skills. By becoming more familiar with these objectives, they will be able to participate in various projects or conferences, having a sufficient vocabulary and language skills to communicate globally. Students will be able to better understand the globalized world and the terminology used in relation to the Sustainable Development Goals. They will learn talk about issues that directly affect our lives. They will learn to write formal an informal letters addressed to institutions, NGOs or their friends. They will learn talk about issues that directly affect our lives. They will learn to write formal an informal letters addressed to institutions, NGOs or their friends. They will use the acquired vocabulary correctly and construct sentences with a regular structure. They will develop critical thinking skills. They will learn public speaking on curre topics. They will be formed as individuals by completing their knowledge both linguistically and professionally, but above all by being competent in global communication Correctorets 1. Professions / career 2. Animals on land and in water 3. The world around us 4 Voluntary work 5. Water pollution 6. Recycling 7. Gender equality 8. Education of the world of the presentation, I'll cover three main aspects of ABA English: Learning Ap		Course level	Program Profesio	nal 2-Vjeçar terminology used in relation to the Sustainable Development Goals. They will learn about Sustainability They will learn about climate change issues. They will learn talk about issues that directly affect our lives. They will learn to write formal an informal letters addressed to institutions, NGOs or their friends. They will use the acquired vocabulary correctly and construct sentences with a regular structure. They will develop critical thinking skills. They will learn public speaking on curre topics. They will be formed as individuals by completing their knowledge both linguistically and professionally, but above all by being competent in global communication Core Concepts 1. Professions / career 2. Animals on land and in water 3. The world around us 4 Voluntary work 5. Water pollution 6. Recycling 7. Gender equality 8. Education ourse Outline Week Topic NTRODUCTION LIFE BOOKS -Unit 1 Culture and identity -practice test-ABA English-During this presentation, I'll cover three main aspects of ABA English: Learning Approach: How the platfor mirrors the process of natural language acquisition. Interactive Features and Content: Including the use of ABA Films and live teacher sessions. Flexibility and Accessibility: How ABA English allows students to learn at their own pace, anytime, anywhere. 2. Unit 1 Culture and identityReading. Talking about career. Work, skills and qualifications. Grammar: Subordinate sentences. (want to be or would like to be) 3. Unit 2 Performing-Reading. Animals in danger of extinction. Grammar: Comparative form 4. Unit 3 Water 5. 4-Opportunities-		Description	communication of where globalism communication is writing skills by leading which we live. We change, poverty, quality education the world by learn the book has partinight develops crobjectives, they was a subjectives.	In the topics of is the key workills. In the SE earning about eall live, ODG hunger, water, life under waning about glots from the resitical thinking will be able to	f "Sustainable d, we must pr d Times Zones topics related topics covere r crisis, gende ater, life on lan abal issues tha al world, it is r skills. By becoparticipate in	Development repare student, students will to different cd by this booker equality, social, invites student affect us all, motivating, actioning more favarious project	Goals". In a swith global develop land ultures and t such as: clin cial and healt dents to be control on Tamiliar with the control of the conference of the	guage and he world hate h welfare itizens of intent of hursday nese ences,
Voluntary work 5. Water pollution 6. Recycling 7. Gender equality 8. Education purse Outline Week Topic NTRODUCTION LIFE BOOKS -Unit 1 Culture and identity -practice test-ABA English-During this presentation, I'll cover three main aspects of ABA English: Learning Approach: How the platfor mirrors the process of natural language acquisition. Interactive Features and Content: Includin the use of ABA Films and live teacher sessions. Flexibility and Accessibility: How ABA English allows students to learn at their own pace, anytime, anywhere. Unit 1 Culture and identityReading. Talking about career. Work, skills and qualifications. Grammar: Subordinate sentences. (want to be or would like to be) Unit 2 Performing-Reading. Animals in danger of extinction. Grammar: Comparative form Unit 3 Water 4-Opportunities-		Objectives	terminology used in relation to the Sustainable Development Goals. They will learn about Sustainability They will learn about climate change issues. They will learn talk about issues that directly affect our lives. They will learn to write formal and informal letters addressed to institutions, NGOs or their friends. They will use th acquired vocabulary correctly and construct sentences with a regular structure. They will develop critical thinking skills. They will learn public speaking on curre topics. They will be formed as individuals by completing their knowledge both linguistically and professionally, but above all by being competent in global
Topic NTRODUCTION LIFE BOOKS -Unit 1 Culture and identity -practice test-ABA English-During this presentation, I'll cover three main aspects of ABA English: Learning Approach: How the platfor mirrors the process of natural language acquisition. Interactive Features and Content: Includin the use of ABA Films and live teacher sessions. Flexibility and Accessibility: How ABA English allows students to learn at their own pace, anytime, anywhere. Unit 1 Culture and identityReading. Talking about career. Work, skills and qualifications. Grammar: Subordinate sentences. (want to be or would like to be) Unit 2 Performing-Reading. Animals in danger of extinction. Grammar: Comparative form Unit 3 Water 4-Opportunities-	Core Concepts		1. Professions / career 2. Animals on land and in water 3. The world around us 4. Voluntary work 5. Water pollution 6. Recycling 7. Gender equality 8. Education
NTRODUCTION LIFE BOOKS -Unit 1 Culture and identity -practice test-ABA English-During this presentation, I'll cover three main aspects of ABA English: Learning Approach: How the platfor mirrors the process of natural language acquisition. Interactive Features and Content: Including the use of ABA Films and live teacher sessions. Flexibility and Accessibility: How ABA English allows students to learn at their own pace, anytime, anywhere. Unit 1 Culture and identityReading. Talking about career. Work, skills and qualifications. Grammar: Subordinate sentences. (want to be or would like to be) Unit 2 Performing-Reading. Animals in danger of extinction. Grammar: Comparative form Unit 3 Water 4-Opportunities-	ourse Outlin	пе presentation, I'll cover three main aspects of ABA English: Learning Approach: How the platfor mirrors the process of natural language acquisition. Interactive Features and Content: Includin the use of ABA Films and live teacher sessions. Flexibility and Accessibility: How ABA English allows students to learn at their own pace, anytime, anywhere. Unit 1 Culture and identityReading. Talking about career. Work, skills and qualifications. Grammar: Subordinate sentences. (want to be or would like to be) Unit 2 Performing-Reading. Animals in danger of extinction. Grammar: Comparative form Unit 3 Water 4-Opportunities-	Week	Торіс
Grammar: Subordinate sentences. (want to be or would like to be) Unit 2 Performing-Reading. Animals in danger of extinction. Grammar: Comparative form Unit 3 Water 4-Opportunities-	1	presentation, I'll cover three main aspects of ABA English: Learning Approach: How the platform mirrors the process of natural language acquisition. Interactive Features and Content: Including the use of ABA Films and live teacher sessions. Flexibility and Accessibility: How ABA English
4 Unit 3 Water 5 4-Opportunities-	2
5 4-Opportunities-	3	Unit 2 Performing-Reading. Animals in danger of extinction. Grammar: Comparative form
	4	Unit 3 Water
6 Unit 5 Wellbeing				-
	5	4-Opportunition	es-
			ing

8	MID-TERM
9	Unit 7 Living space
10	Unit 8	Unit 8 Travel
11	Unit 9	9 Shopping
12	Unit :	10 No limits
13	Unit :	Unit 11 Connections
14	Unit 12 Experts
15	PROJI	PROJECTS
16	Final Exam
Prerequi	Prerequisites The student must attend the course at a minimum rate of 75%.
Literature		• Life Books INTERMEDIATE-Paul, John and Helen-National Geographic stories and articles. this series is designed for intermediate learners, typically at the B1/B2 level on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).
References		ABA English, a unique and effective platform for learning English online.
Course Outcome
1
2
3

Course Evaluation
In-term Studies	Quantity	Percentage
Midterms		1	30
Quizzes		2	10
Projects		0	0
Term Projects		0	0
Laboratory	0	0
Class Participation 1
Total in-term evaluation percent
Final exam percent
Total
ECTS Workload (Based on Student Workload)
Activities	Quantity	Duration (hours)	Total (hours)
Course duration (Including the exam week: 16x Total hours of the course)	16	5	80
Study hours outside the classroom (Preparation, Practice, etc.)	14	2	28
Duties	0	0	0
Midterms	1	7	7
Final Exam	1	9	9
Other	4	2	8
Total Work Load
Total Work Load / 25 (hours)
ECTS								